

COPIC AWARD 2024 Application Rules

[About COPIC AWARD]

This COPIC AWARD (hereinafter referred to as “AWARD”) is an event aimed at providing an opportunity to publish on the internet the works created using COPIC (hereinafter referred to as “COPIC Works” or entries), connecting COPIC fans all over the world by such works, and celebrating the joy of creativity. Anybody can apply with the COPIC Work, and the COPIC Works applied from across the world can be freely viewed at the special AWARD site (<https://copicaward.com>, hereinafter referred to as “Special AWARD Site”).

[Application Method]

- The applicant to the AWARD (hereinafter referred to as “Applicant” or “you”) shall agree to be bound by this COPIC AWARD Application Rules (hereinafter referred to as “Rules”), by applying from the Special AWARD Site. (<https://copicaward.com>)

- Application for participating in the AWARD (hereinafter referred to as “Application”) should be made by filling out the required items on the Application form available on the Special AWARD Site. The application will be accepted only if it is made on the Application form via the Special AWARD Site. The Applicant shall agree in advance that the Application by other methods will not be accepted. By submitting the entry via the application form, the applicant shall be deemed to agree to all of the following terms and conditions.

- After you make an Application, the Organizer will send a confirmation email.

Following the instructions in the confirmation email, please upload an image (up to 3 pictures from the same work) of your work. If you have set up a domain designated reception to prevent spam emails, please change the setting so that you can receive emails from “@copicaward.com.”

- The image of the uploaded applied work (s) will be displayed on the Special AWARD Site only if the Organizer confirms it fulfills the requirements set forth herein. The Applicant shall agree in advance that if the Application does not fulfill the requirements set forth herein, the image of the applied work will not be displayed on the website.

- Only one work may be applied by one person.

[Treatment of Applied Works]

- Applied works will be displayed on the Special AWARD Site (<https://copicaward.com>).

- Applicants shall grant the Organizer the use of imagery and information associated with applied works, in promotional activities relevant to COPIC AWARD in all media without prior consent. Promotional activities will include use in print and online (public transmission, publishing, broadcasting, social media, the exhibition, etc.) and editing, copying, reprinting, translation, adaptation, and any other forms of secondary use.

[Examination of Applications]

- Processing of Applications will be conducted in principle in the order of acceptance; provided, however, the order may be changed under certain circumstances.
- The Organizer may not accept an Application if it falls under any of the following cases:
 1. A false fact is stated in the Application form.
 2. In addition to what is prescribed in the preceding case, it causes a problem for the Organizer's business, or it is reasonably judged likely to do so.
 3. The Applicant belongs to an anti-social group or is judged to be its member and affiliated party; or
 4. The Applicant does not agree to the Rules, or the applied work falls under the Prohibited Works or does not fulfill other requirements stipulated in the Rules.
- After displaying the applied work on the Special AWARD Site, if there is a claim by a third party about infringement of rights or other things concerning the said applied work, the Organizer may decide to stop the display of the said applied work.
- If the Organizer does not accept an Application, the Organizer will notify the Applicant to that effect.

[Qualifications for Application]

There are no restrictions for nationality, age, gender, experience, area of residence, etc. However, the Applicant shall agree that the Application is limited to the Application by an individual only and the Application by any group shall not be accepted.
